For years subsequent to 2013, the hourly rate per flight hour shall be determined by multiplying the Total Variable Cost/Hour (from the previous year's Conklin and de Decker Aircraft Cost Report, Volume II) by 120%. For example, the 2014 hourly rate per flight hour will be 120% of the Total Variable Cost/Hour as published in the Conklin and de Decker Aircraft Cost Report - 2013 Volume II.

Panasonic acknowledges and agrees that nothing in this Amendment obligates Buyer to provide Aircraft demonstration flights for Panasonic or its prospective customers and that the provision of such flights shall be solely at Buyer's discretion, including, without limitation, Buyer's determination of Aircraft availability.

For any Demonstration Flight, the Buyer's or the Buyer's designee shall have the right to accompany Panasonic at the Buyer's sole discretion. Panasonic shall notify the Buyer in accordance with Exhibit D to the Agreement.

It is the intention of the parties that the Demonstration Flights will occur at an annual hours usage of approximately sixty (60) hours per year for a period of five years commencing on the Extended Completion Date. Panasonic is not obligated to use the quantity of hours stated above.
